Before we begin. I should tell you that I'm countinuing/ re-writing a story for someone who is no longer writing this (OtakuPotato on fanfiction.net and thanks). But do enjoy. Disclaimer I do not own voltron. Thankyou. Also this has keitor in this.(keith x lotor)

Shiro Pov

Every since we saved the princess Keith had been acting weird. When I go to him he would lock himself in his room and ignore everyone. ' what is wrong with Keith', I thought to myself. It took us a week till we caught him off guard. We all walked into Keith's room to see it almost destroyed, however Keith was just sleeping on his bed sweating.

"Coran I think we should take some blood to check if he's ill", I said while staring at Keith. He nodded and we got his blood and left his room.

Keith Pov

I woke up looking at an open door, this causes me to panic and hide in the bathroom. I start to breath heavy and locked the door to help me calm down. I stand up and slash my face with cold water. Then as I got to unlock I hear someone banging on the door.

BANG! BANG! BANG!

I cover my ears as the banging echoed in my ears. "Keith we know your in there, we're all here to talk", I heard Shiros voice. I gulped and unlocked the door slowly opening it. When it opened up I had a red face from where I've been crying.

"Keith your off the team." Allura said bluntly and didn't bother talking to me. I froze instantly after that. "Go on, get out my castle you MONSTER", Allura shouted as I fell to the ground holding onto my ears. "HURRY UP I DONT HAVE ALL DAY! GET THE FUCK OUT NOW!" she shouted again. With that I got up grabbed my knife and jacket and ran off to the escape pods with tears flowing down my face.

'I should have known that I wasn't welcome, I just found out and now they don't care anymore.' I thought. 'it hurts, it hurts so bad'. I made it to the escape pod and fled the castle.

Shiro Pov

I watched Keith cry, right in front of me. Keith never cried unless he cared about someone. I saw him run away and just stood their, but I wasn't the only one who froze. "HOW COULD YOU SAY THAT!" I turn to see Lance shout at Allura. "he was our team mate....never in my life have I seen Keith cry.....the only person who has seen him cry is Shiro" Pidge said while staring angrily at Allura. I begin to cry thinking my adopted son ran away when he needed me.

Keith Pov

"Why? How? Could she be like that?

Tears rushed down my face, as I held my ear. Suddenly the pod began to shake, and I began to panic. Before I could act I crashed and blacked out. I woke up with a huge headache and a sore leg. I look down to see my leg had a large cut down the side of it, I look around and my head began to spin. I slowly crawled and sent out a distress signal.

I laid on the floor waiting for help, using a part of my top to stop my leg from bleeding. I began to hear a faint sound of a ship, and footsteps outside of the pod. I try to get up but yelped in pain. The door opened to 5 galra like looking soldiers, the one with long white hair and elf like ears kneeled down and picked me up in a bridal style. I began to cry into his chest and fell a sleep

Lotor Pov

I carried the boy in my arms to my ship as I heard him faint snore. He looked exhausted and in pain, I just felt like I needed to help him and protect him.

Keith Pov

I woke up no-longer in pain, just confused. Then as I began to think I remembered everything. I turn to see the same galra that saved me pacing back and forward through out the room. "Where am I?" I questioned

I'm sorry for taking so long I've been studying for my exams which have just started but you have asked to make another part so! That is what I'm going to do. And don't forget it's Keith x Lotor. Enjoy!!!!

Keith's pov

"Where am I?" I questioned the large galra in front of me. He looked shocked for some reason but answered. "Your on my ship and before you ask my name is Prince Lotor." I froze when he said prince. 'is he the prince of the galra empire'.

"My name is Keith Kogane" I said because I felt like it was necessary after he saved my life. "Can I ask you a question Keith?" Lotor asked me. I nodded as a reply. "Why where you in that position? If you don't mind me asking. Sorry" Lotor said and apologised.

" You don't need to apologise. I was in that position because recently we were in a position where I was given some information in my DNA. It was me finding out that I'm half galran and this caused Princess Allura to kick me out of the paladins of voltron. And then you know the rest" I finished saying when tears started in to build up in my eyes.

"I'm so sorry Keith, you want to know something I'm also only part galra" Lotor said, I looked at him with wide eyes. "My mother was altean and my father is Empire Zarkon"

"Why do I look nothing like a galra because I thought you were just galra. You have the eyes, the height and the skin of a galra." I said with the question that has been bugging me for the last few minutes. "Maybe your galra gene needs a boost. Heck that happened to all my generals, I had to give them a dose or two to push their galra genes." He said with a slight chuckle.

"I know this is all sudden but would you like to be one of my generals?" He asked me. I looked at him in the eyes that were rather beautiful. 'wait what!!!!' "Do I have to fight voltron?" I asked.

" No you don't. I wouldn't make you fight your friends, I'm nothing like my father. HE'S SKUM TO THE GALRA" lotor shouted and then saw me shocked. "Sorry" He said and looked really sad. I felt horrible that he keeps apologising so I got up and hugged him. Cause WHY NOT. He jumped when I made contact but hugged back. "Could I have the dose of the quintessence, because if I'm gonna be one of your generals I should embraces my galra side." I said

" I see why not" he answered

Time skip brought to you by a lazy author

Lotor's pov

Keith just had his dose of quintessence and is currently in my chambers because there's something about him that I quite don't understand. I continue to designing a new altea because after meeting Keith I decided to stop the extracting of their quintessence and destroyed the moon that held the altean's. I sent Acxa to destroy it. As I begin to hear groaning behind my sofa, I go to look but only to see Keith with all his galra features. As I get near him a get a strong scent admitting from him, sweet and relaxing. 'He's my mate but he's also a seems to be an omega'. He looks at and begins to sniff the air.

"What's that smell coming from you? Why do I want you?" He asked while blushing. "Oh that smell would be your detection of your mate, which so happens to be me. But the needing from me would determine that your an omega that means your in heat" I answer.

"Ok that make sense because ever since I met I keep blushing and want to kiss you but what's an omega?" He asked still blushing. "An omega is a mainly female's because female usually give birth to our young but they can also be a beta, but cant be an alpha. Alpha and beta's are usually only male's but you and other few male galra's are and omega which means you can give birth to our young." I said

I looked at him with blush covering my face not controlling my alpha instincts back that I straight on kissed him. I he was surprised but started to joining in. I licked his bottom lips and asked for entrance and gave me it.

WARNING MY FIRST ATTEMPT OF SMUT*******

thirds person

Lotor entered Keith's mouth and began spreading his hands around his body. While Keith wrapped his arms around Lotor's neck. "Mark me" Keith said with pleasure. Lotor nodded and went to bite is neck and drew blood and began to suck. Keith began to moan and Lotor trailed his hands down to Keith's boxers.

Ripping off all of Keith's clothing, he started to remove his armour. Keith layed of the bed, Lotor licking him all over. Keith continued to moan louder and Lotor started to rub his member with his hand. "Kitten can have kits with you? Please" Lotor asked and begged Keith

"I would love to have your kits lotor. So fuck me please my alpha" Keith replied with moans and pants. Lotor smiled and turned Keith to go on his stomach. Keith had no clue what was going until he felt a finger go up his new found hole. "I'm going to prepare you so I don't hurt you" Lotor said and started to move his finger, then adding another one until he added 3 fingers searching for his spot. Keith moaned louder and louder until lotor found it.

"FUCK ME ALPHA! GHAA JUST FUCK ME LOTOR!!" Keith shouted. Lotor took out his fingers and held onto Keith's hips and pushed his member into Keith. He screamed and began to pant as Lotor started to move and Keith felt the pleasure. " go.. faster....

GO FASTER" So Lotor went faster and faster. Groaning every thrust. Keith screaming and moaning in pleasure. "Lotor ....I'm...gonna cum" Keith got out. "It's okay Kitten I'm going to do as well and have a lot of it so releases. Keith nodded and releases and moans. Moaning even more as Lotor releases triple amount inside Keith.

Lotor was about to take his member out when Keith stopped him. "Lotor stay inside please" Keith begged. Lotor hugged him and layed the both down with lotor still inside Keith

*Ending of that scene*******

They both went to sleep in joy and satisfied pleasure.

At the castle of lion

The paladins were in the common room when Coran came barging in with a panicked face

"Keith's pod has been sensed but as a distress signal. the paladins froze.

Well I hope you enjoyed and please leave a comment. Should Lotor and Keith get married and ignore the paladins. Ands I might do a lot of focus only on Keith and lotor.

Chapter 3

AN: I'm so sorry for not writing in such a long time but that is due to having many things going such as exam's my 16th birthday and sixth form applications. And I like this photo of Natsu due to not finding a good Keith and Lotor.

With that done enjoy.

Castle of Lions

Shiro's pov

To just find out that Keith's pod is possibly damaged, the thought sent me tumbling down and having Hunk and Lance catch me, also with Pidge at the brink of tears. The look on Allura though she looked incredibly guilty and Coran looked deeply concerned for her.

"He has be okay right? We need to go there!" Hunk said in mid panic. We all nodded and Coran typed the coordinates into the control panel (?). We all went to the sofa room or common room to wait out the till we arrived but also to comfort one another.

Lotor's secret planet on his ship.

Keith's pov

I woke up the next morning aching but still filled in pleasure. I then rembered the from before, I'm deeply in love with the prince of the galra. I don't know why but I loved the fact he hated the galra even though he is the prince. I also learned some things that I didn't even consider, all the galra despise Zarkon but they are just scared to go against him and Lotor is also a high ranked BOM member.

I begin to open my eyes and I could see Lotor's arms wrapped around me protectively, that's when I felt his member still inside me. "Your awake kitten" Lotor said cheerfully. I nodded. "I love you Lotor so much" I said and we continued to cuddle.

"I do to so much Keith your completed the whole in my heart. And I can never ever repay you that so thank you for loving me" he said in such a loving and honest tone. He moves slightly and from were he still inside me it cause me to moan a little.

He looked surprised then rembered he was still in me. I swear I could have seen he smirked because he began to thrust again, causing me to become a moaning mess. He released the took it and got up from the kings sized purple bed. "Come on lets go have a wash I'm pretty sure the blades and paladins want to know your safe. Though sorry for making you think you were gonna be on of my generals that's because there was a empire spy on the ship" He said in a worried tone thinking I wont forgive him.

"That's fine Lotor you don't want your father to find about the whole thing you have more than all of the galra as spies and being rebels. You remind me a lot of my father telling a little white lie to protect the ones you love." I replied.

time skip, little sex in the shower. ;3

After the wash we headed to the control room, when all of a sudden I a feeling like I was gonna be sick. So I ran to a bin sort think and released all of the food from the night before and this morning, I could hear Lotor run to me and holds my hair and rubs my back as I release my guts.

"Thanks Lo I feel better now your with me." I said with a weak smile, getting a gentle smile back. He hugs me and I can hear all the other galra in the room which mainly consist of half-breeds in BOM. He gets up and goes to pick me and places me on the sofa thing at the front with the large screen at the front.

He places me there while he talks to his fellow members telling to round up the altean's. "Keith I should tell this now but I had many altean's give me there life to stop by giving up there quintessence to help me rebuild altea and I've just gotten news it's become finished and I was wondering that would you help me get the altean's there after this talk with BOM and the paladins." Lotor asked and I nodded.

Another time skip - still Keith's Pov

We got the main base of BOM with Thace, Antok, Ulaz and Kolivan now were just waiting for guys. "Keith there on were gonna go show them now" Lotor said.

Lotor: Hello paladins.

Lance: Lotor what do you want were trying to find Keith here and why are BOM on this call.

Kolivan: Because this is something that has to do with all of us, mainly Keith that is clearly sitting next to Lotor. 'he smiled slightly'

Shiro: KEITH!!! oh thank god your safe.

Pidge: You look like a giant space cat. 'laughing'

I frown

Lotor: I'm sorry for how I've treated you paladins but I have gotten almost my fathers trust, and Kolivan I have only got 10 galran's left in the empire that a loyal to Zarkon then I can dethrone him and end this war for at last for 10000 years.

me whispering: Lotor I think we should tell them about us since they still look speechless.

he nods

Lotor: Also on that account me and Keith are now dating so that would also make him a prince of the galra and they also seem to mostly have a soft spot for you Keith.

Everyone on the castle and Thace and Ulaz: WHAT!!!!!!

me: And I think I'm pregnant

EVERYONE(including Lotor): WHAT!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

I hear a thump next to me seeing that Lotor has fainted and fell on the floor

I'll update soon hopefully and send me remondations of what will happen next
